Forecast For The United Kingdom
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Thursday 15 Jul 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Fine and very warm for many.

This Evening and Tonight:
Dry with clearing skies for most; a few isolated fog patches forming. Cloudier across parts of southeast England, whilst low cloud and drizzly rain affect western Scotland.

Friday:
Most parts dry with plenty of sunshine, becoming very warm inland. Cloudier and cooler across western and northern Scotland with a little drizzle in places.

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Cloudy across the far north with patchy rain or drizzle. Fine, dry and sunny elsewhere, becoming hot in places. Risk of thundery showers in the south on Monday.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.